Real Books in Your Hands

Borrowing From Us & Northwestern

Come on in!
Stop on by to borrow from our circulating collection of books, dvds, cds, & equipment. Reserve items can be checked out, but are generally for in-library use only.

Mail Loans
Distance students have the option to request items from our stacks to be mailed to their homes when they live more than 50 miles from campus.

Borrowing From Our Partner Libraries

ACTS Libraries
The Association of Chicago Theological Schools welcomes & encourages you to borrow materials from any of ACTS locations that fit your needs.

You'll need an ACTS borrower’s ID card to borrow items from other ACTS libraries. (It’s easy to get, contact us.)

ATLA Reciprocal Borrowing
This American Theological Library Association program grants you access to over 60 theological libraries across North America. Use the links on our website to locate the library closest to you, bring proof of current enrollment, and you're set.

Interlibrary Loan

ILL
If we do not have an item you need, we’re happy to borrow it from another library outside our institution via Interlibrary Loan. Restrictions apply.

More @ library.garrett.edu/ILL

WorldCat

Find Your Item In Any Library
If you’re interested in a specific resource and would like to find out what library has it, have a look in WorldCat. WorldCat is an online database that searches the collections of over 10,000 libraries worldwide.

Finding Articles

USearch is the library’s discovery tool that allows you to search through our physical catalog, and most of our electronic resources, including databases, all from one search box.

Highly Recommended Religion Databases

There may still be times when you want to go directly to a database and use its interface to search for resources.

ATLA Religion Database with Serials
Ministry Matters
Online Academic Video Collection
ProQuest Dissertations & Theses
Research in Ministry Online

Printing, Copying, & Scanning

Print Accounts

PaperCut Print Accounts
The Styberg Library’s copying and printing services are managed through a web-based payment system called PaperCut. With this system, users can check their printing balance from any internet-capable device, see their environmental impact, and even use the copy/printers without having their physical print card with them. Follow the link on the library website to check your balance at any time.
