Physical Items

Borrowing Basics

From Us

Stop By
If you are in the area, come to the library to get your books.

Mail Loans
DMin & PhD students have the options to request items from our stacks to be mailed to their homes when they live more than 50 miles from campus. Students mail them back when due.

From Our Partner Libraries

ACTS Libraries
The Association of Chicago Theological Schools (ACTS) welcomes & encourages you to borrow materials from any of their locations.

*An ACTS borrower's ID card is necessary to borrow items from other ACTS libraries, contact us to get one.

Atla Reciprocal Borrowing
This program grants you access to theological libraries across North America. Use the links on our website to locate the library closest to you, bring proof of current enrollment, and you're set.

From Your Local Public Library

Local Public Libraries
Don't overlook your own local public library. Usually, public libraries will grant you a borrowing card for free after showing proof of residency.

Use their ILL services to request books from theological libraries around the U.S.

WorldCat

Find Your Item in Any Library
WorldCat is an online database that searches the collections of over 10,000 libraries worldwide.

* Use it to find out what library has a specific resource you're interested in.
